Our Mission

To inspire and enhance the lives of citizens in our community and beyond by developing appreciation of the arts, presenting arts programming and education, supporting local artists, & fostering creativity in the community.

Supporting the Arts Online

www.fuquay-varinaartscouncil.org

Monthly Art Walk

On the second Friday of each month, local businesses stay open late (5-9pm) to showcase the Arts in various forms.

Community Events

An accessibility to the arts fosters creativity in a community, the value of which is immeasurable.

Artist and Crafter's Market

Local Artists & Crafters display and sell their work downtown at the "Artist & Crafter's Market" every second Friday during "Art after Dark."

Cultural Diversity Through the Arts

By experiencing the art of another culture, we can appreciate our differences while sharing in our common humanity.

Local Arts Programming

Waggin' Ears & Mallarme Chamber Players are just a few of the talented local artists that the Fuquay-Varina Arts Council has had the pleasure of bringing to our town.
